*A friendly smile . . . a happy "hello"
... a sincere personal interest . . . a kindly understanding — These qualities formulate the admirable character of Mrs. Doris Dasher. To her the Seniors of Miller High proudly dedicate the 1954 Annual.*

For the superb job rendered in training our athletes in the skill of the game, the meaning of true sportsmanship, and the forming of the best in character, we, the 1954 seniors, dedicate our yearbook to the athletic coaching staff.

GYM SHOTS

Stand up tall now.

Harryet Pape and Shirley Coley play a favorite minor sport for Millerites—badminton.

Volleyball, another popular sport for Miller girls.

Watch it Barbara, Hancock's waiting for that ball!

Time out for a coke.

Down goes the pin and up goes the score in a speed pin ball game.

Basketball—keenest inter-class competition at Miller.

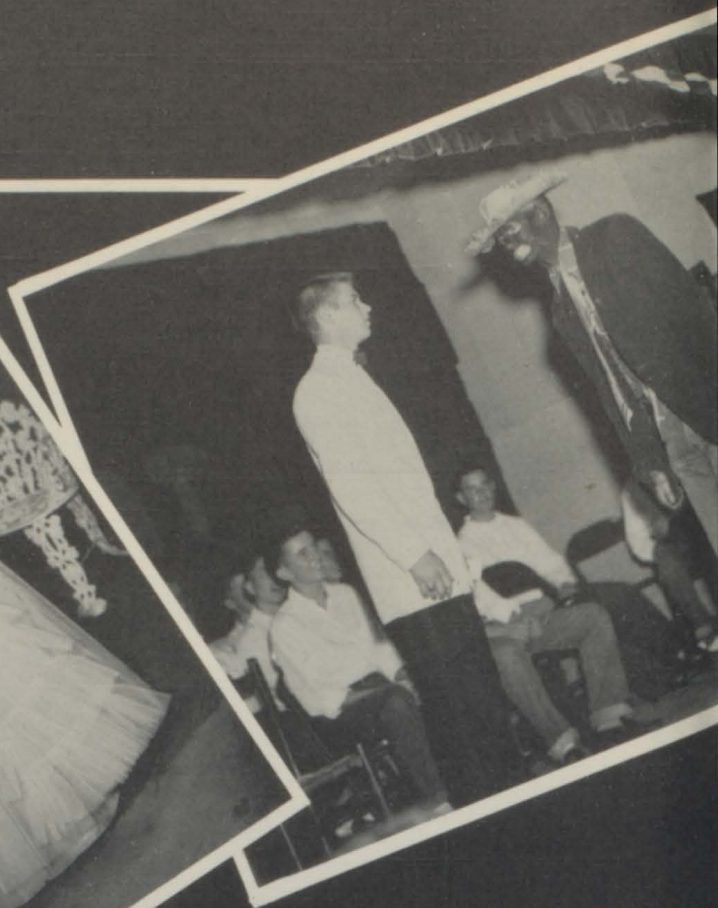

Evelyn Aldridge watches as the little girl with the big stick, Patsy Horton, takes her turn at shuffleboard.

All join hands—and point your toe!

Debbie's all ready to return that serve!
